By Frank H. Warren.

The Metropolitan Opera season's primal novelty, "Die Tote Stadt," that first served to reveal here the talen's of Maria Jeritza, the dazzliag, is mearing its present journey's end. With last evening's presentation, its lift, Mr. Korngold's spectacular offert ran out its string of subscription performances.

Mrs. Ebbets charged misconduct with an unidentified woman, Sept. 17 last, at the Ten Eyek Hotel, Alliany. Arthur Van Zandt, a detective, testified he, two other detectives, Charles Wills, a friend of the Ebbets family and a chauffeur, trailed Ebbets and the woman from his home at No. 1466 Glenwood road, Brooklyn, to the Ten Eyek by automobile.

There, the detective said, Ebbets registered as "Charles H. Ebbets and wife, New York City." Van Zandt said he and his party found Ebbets's room and gained admittance shortly before midnight.

Railroad Thieves, Beating Him to Death, Desist at Sight of Insigna.

Detective J. C. Rodlinski of Sala- or corn between the toes, and the manca, employed by the Eric Rail- calluses, without soreness or irritation road, yesterday saved him from being murdered by a gang of car burglars whom he surprised pilfering a freight car in the Gowanda freight yards near here.

Rodlinski, accompanied by State troopers, went to the Gowanda yards yesterday to guard cars on a tip that an attempt would be made to rob them. After several hours the troopers returned to Gowanda, but Rodlinski remained and was hiding under a car when eight men appeared and started to break into a car. Rodlinski opened fire and the burglars returned it until Rodlinski had exhausted his ammunition. They then dragged him out the burglars flashed a light to not him in the head until he was half unconscious.

One of the burglars flashed a light to his face, exposing the button on his coat.
